The batter is out, the ball remains live, and base runners may advance at their own risk as a result of the ball being caught and/or dropped. Managers shall also, to the best of their ability, monitor and control the conduct of the parents and the spectators on their side of the field. Managers may remind these spectators that the umpire has the authority to eject a spectator from the arena for unsportsmanlike conduct, such as harassment or foul language.
- 4) Managers must conduct themselves in a sportsmanlike manner at all times, and they should always be an example of good sportsmanship for their players and the spectators. The reason for the protest must be clearly stated. No protest will be considered unless the following takes place:

  - b. The league commissioner and league director will determine the outcome of the protest in a timely manner.
