Board of Directors Reports:

- Apparel Coordinator – Rob Link
- Motion for 3rd Jersey through Title Wave – Allie McDowell
 - Original quote was through TitleWave
 - Worked with PureHockey to get proposal
 - Quality isn't where they need it:
 - Sizing
 - Rebuttal: Jerseys for fitting were exact same size as what was shipped. Should have been to fitting and we would have known the fit for your kid
 - Rebuttal: Only gave 2 week window for fittings and many were on vacation
 - Ask: Let's have a size night where kids upset by their size overlay the sizer with their current to ensure they're the same. If not, we ask PH to replace.
 - Buckles let loose on pants
 - Rebuttal: They need to help us understand how to solve this problem
 - Names are different fonts and sometimes unreadable
 - Rebuttal: Names are larger but not a lot we can do about that
 - Logos are enlarged and feel “different”
 - Quality defects need to be replaced
 - Rebuttal:
 - Adult shirts need logo at 10”
 - Child shirts need logo at 7”
 - Solution Advocacy:
 - Give PureHockey some grace and an opportunity to solve our problems
 - Sizing to samples. Look at different sizes of new jerseys to see
 - Ask PureHockey to offer a special “rate” to reorder jerseys to get the right size
 - Buckles need some solutions from PureHockey. They don't lock
 - Quality defects need to be replaced and PureHockey is on board
 - 3rd Jersey should be ordered through PureHockey after a sizing night

- Approved 16U pink jersey
