

OLENTANGY BASEBALL CLUB COACH EXPECTATIONS-TEAM BANK ACCOUNTS

- I. The funds deposited by the Olentangy Baseball Club into the bank accounts issued to each Head Coach are to be used only for the following team expenses:
  - a. Insurance
  - b. Umpire fees
  - c. Tournament fees
  - d. Team party (if funds are available following the last game of the season)
- II. Under no circumstances shall funds deposited into the team bank account be used for personal purposes or expenses
- III. Additional fundraising on the individual team level beyond what the Olentangy Baseball Club organizes is permissible. Funds generated from additional fundraising may be deposited into the team bank account and used for the benefit of the individual team beyond the expenses outlined in Paragraph I, for example paying for uniforms and other Olentangy Baseball Club apparel, or for private baseball lessons. Under no circumstances shall funds generated from individual fundraising be used for personal purposes or expenses
- IV. Only the Head Coach is permitted to manage the team finances. In the event the Head Coach is no longer managing the finances, access to the account shall be revoked
- V. The Olentangy Baseball Club Treasurer, and any other identified Board Member, shall have access to review and monitor activities on all club issued bank accounts.
- VI. All Olentangy Baseball Club issued bank accounts shall be subject to audit and to that end each Head Coach is encouraged to maintain a budget of all expenses
