New Business: N/A

Gaming: All gaming sites are performing well. The gun list for the raffle is being prepared and tickets will be ordered soon.

Park Board Update: (Jordan) The lease agreement for the new training facility is being finalized. Bridges at Kings Walk Golf Course will be redone. Improvements for the BLC Iceplex North rink will begin in 2027.

BLC Update: (Chuck) The BLC Annual Golf Tournament was a success with proceeds benefitting Lori Nelson.

Girls Growth & Development Update: (Cassie for Margot) Grand Forks Public Schools approved the addition of a girls JV team at the high school level. Therefore, we will not have a girls 15U team this season. The girls' pool party was successful and well attended. Registration for the Fall Girls Learn to Play Hockey program is open, and numbers are good so far. The girls program will participate in the Potato Bowl Parade again this year and distribute flyers about girls hockey.

Hockey Director Update: (Jason) Summer camps are now done. Registration numbers were good and camps were a success. The Game Changer Half-day camp starts next week with healthy numbers at all levels. Fall camps will begin in September for termites/6u, mites/8u, and squirts/10u. Pre-tryout scrimmages for Bantams, Peewees, 12u, and squirts/10u are being planned. A registration for those will go out to parents soon.

Executive Director Update: (Brad) Brad presented the board with a budget comparison for this year versus last year. The report included information that takes into account that we had a 15U team last year but will not have one this year. He also presented the annual financial report. This will be included in the email with the most recent newsletter, which will be sent to all families in the association at the end of this month. Sponsorships are looking good for the upcoming season.

Administrative Update: Registration is now open for the 26/27 hockey season. Plans are being made for the annual season kick-off event which we plan to have on September 16. The annual equipment exchange will take place the same night as the kick-off event. Squirt International pins are being planned and should be ordered very soon.

Adjournment: Motion to adjourn was made by Shaun, seconded by Kyle. The meeting adjourned at 8:10 PM.
