

PARENT CODE OF CONDUCT

We desire to create a safe, fun, and educational atmosphere. Youth sports programs play an important role in promoting the physical, social and emotional development of children. It is vital that parents encourage the support of BAHL values, development, accountability, respect, unity, positive reinforcement, and leadership. Moreover, adults involved in BAHL should be models of these values and should lead by example. As we strive to create a positive club culture it is important that you all remember the role you as parents play. I therefore pledge to be responsible for my words and actions while attending a BAHL event, including but not limited to games, practice, evaluations, parent meetings, fundraisers, and team functions and shall conform my behavior to the following code of conduct:

1. I will put the emotional and physical well-being of youth participants ahead of a personal desire to win.
2. I will respect players, coaches, officials, spectators, administrators and families at all times.
3. I will respect the decisions of officials, coaches, managers, administrators, and staff.
4. I will not engage in any violence or verbal threats or use any profanity.
5. I will not coach my child during a game or practice from the stands.
6. I will model good sportsmanship for all youth participants.
7. I will not gossip about, belittle, or ridicule anyone involved in BAHL programming— in public, private, in-person, or online.
8. I will do my part to keep sports fun and positive for every youth participant.
9. I will adhere to all BAHL/ CIA and USAH policies.

I hereby acknowledge that violations of the Parent Code Of Conduct will result in disciplinary action as outlined in the BAHL Discipline Policy
