Non-Athlete memberships cannot be purchased at the event, allow up to 10 days for memberships to be processed. Participants are encouraged to visit the AAU web site www.aausports.org to obtain membership.

6. A major fighting penalty or a match penalty will result in player suspension from the tournament, or a specified number of regular season games determined by the Discipline Committee.
7. Any team official (coach, trainer, or manager) ejected from a game will be suspended for the remainder of the tournament, or a specified number of regular season games determined by the Discipline Committee.
8. Any team acquiring 12 or more penalties in a single game will result in the head coach being suspended for the following game.
9. Coaches are responsible for team conduct while their team is in the arena. Teams are expected to always follow arena rules. Coaches are required to monitor team conduct while using arena facilities; this includes locker rooms, stands, corridors, and all other areas of the arena.

3.0 Tournament Rules

1. All games are double elimination format except for the championship game, during which the winning team will be declared the champion regardless of tournament win/loss record.
2. Teams are seeded based upon win/loss records from the Snake River Showdown.
3. One 30 second timeout will be allowed for each team in the Consolation and Championship Games.

4.0 Tiebreakers

1. Once a tiebreaker round starts, it must be completed. There is no provision for shortening any round of the tiebreaker.
2. Tiebreakers must be conducted in accordance with the procedure outlined in this section.
    a. There is no allowance to change the tiebreaker procedure or the order of the tiebreaker rounds.

This event is licensed by the Amateur Athletic Union of the U.S., Inc. All Participants must have a current AAU membership. AAU membership must be obtained before the competition begins. Non-Athlete memberships cannot be purchased at the event, allow up to 10 days for memberships to be processed. Participants are encouraged to visit the AAU web site www.aausports.org to obtain membership.

   b. Deviation from tiebreaker procedure will result in Showdown games being recorded as a tie or Tournament games being decided by a coin toss.
   c. Example: A game is tied at the end of the 3rd period, and the head coach for Team A calls for a shootout to be conducted. If a Showdown game, the game cannot proceed into a tiebreaker without explicit authorization from the scorekeeper. If the scorekeeper authorizes entry into tiebreaker procedures, the first round must be a 5-minute 3v3 in accordance with the procedure. Any deviation results in a Showdown game being recorded as a tie, during Tournament play this results in the game winner being decided by coin toss.
3. Tournament schedules will allot up to an additional 15 minutes to conduct a tie breaker in accordance with the tiebreaker procedure during each game if necessary to determine a winner.
4. Regular season Showdown games can end in a tie with the following allowance for deviation:
   a. If time allows, at the sole discretion of the scorekeeper, tiebreaker procedures, outlined in this section, may be entered for regular season Showdown games.
   b. In no event shall game time, including any tiebreaker rounds, be allowed to exceed the allotted game schedule.
   c. For regular season Showdown games, tiebreaker procedures may be suspended after each round is completed, resulting in a tie, at the sole discretion of the scorekeeper.
   d. Any deviation from these rules or from the tiebreaker procedure will result in the game being recorded as a tie.
   e. Example 1: A Showdown game is tied at the end of the 3rd period, but game time is not sufficient to allow a 5-minute first tiebreaker round. The scorekeeper should end the game in a tie after the 3rd period is complete.
   f. Example 2: A Showdown game is tied at the end of the 3rd period, but game time is sufficient to allow a 5-minute first tiebreaker round. The scorekeeper may authorize the game to proceed into the tiebreaker. However, at the end of the first tiebreaker round, if the game remains a tie and the scorekeeper does not believe that there is sufficient game time remaining to allow a second tie-breaker round, the scorekeeper should end the game in a tie after the first tie-breaker round is complete.

5. Tiebreaker Procedure:
    a. First Tiebreaker:
        i. The first tiebreaker will consist of a 5-minute overtime period.
        ii. The overtime period will be a 3v3 format with 3 skaters and one goalie for each team.
        iii. Scoring will be sudden death where the first team to score wins.
    b. Second Tiebreaker:
        i. If still tied after the first tiebreaker, a 4-man shootout will be conducted in sudden-death format.
        ii. Head Coaches will determine the 4 shooters and shooting order for their team.
        iii. The Away Team will shoot first.
        iv. Sudden death is determined by each round of the shootout where the first team to score an unanswered goal in any shootout round will be declared the winner.
        v. Example 1: If Team A scores in the first shot of the round, Team B will be allowed to shoot to match. If Team B does not match, Team A wins.
        vi. Example 2: If Team B scores in the second shot of a round where Team A did not score, Team B wins.
        vii. Example 3: If both Team A and Team B score during a round, the game remains a tie and the shootout proceeds to the next round.

c. Third Tiebreaker:
    i. If still tied after the second tiebreaker, a stationary puck will be placed on the goal line centered in the net.
    ii. Shooter 1 from the second tiebreaker for each team will shoot a puck from inside of the Center Faceoff Circle.
    iii. The Home team will shoot first.
    iv. The team whose shot lands closest to the stationary puck after both shots are taken will be declared the winner.
    v. If the stationary puck is struck by a shot, the shot puck will be marked where it comes to a rest and measured to the goal line centered in the net.
