Proctor Baseball Incentive Program

Program is designed to incentivize our youth baseball players to work on baseball activities outside of games and required practices. Baseball activities count towards total hours. Playing catch, batting practice, taking infield, wiffle ball, are all examples of baseball activities.

Eligible timeframe to accumulate hours is June 1st of current baseball season through July 31st of that same season.

First Incentive Level: 20 hours REWARD TBD

Second Incentive Level: 40 hours REWARD TBD
