

Lisa Henning is the SCIS Skate Director for SCIS, and supplemental coach for the Swansyncsation Synchronized Skating teams. She has coached all levels of synchronized skating through the junior level and previously coached the University of Wisconsin Madison Collegiate and Open Collegiate Synchronized Skating teams. She is also a founding member and former coach of the Wisconsin Inspire Synchronized Skating Cooperative which is the first true co-op of its kind.

She has completed many singles skaters to their Gold Moves (Skating Skills) and Free Skate tests. Her singles skaters have competed at the Regional and Junior National level.

Lisa teaches Skating Skills, Free Skate, and Synchronized skating to all ages and levels and is instrumental in creating and sustaining the team atmosphere amongst the coaches that is unique to Swan City Ice Skaters. email: icechick521@gmail.com
