

Mary Spencer Noffke is an ice dancing pro who loves teaching skaters of all ages! A former regional, sectional and national collegiate competitor at the junior level in ice dance and a national competitor in synchronized skating, Mary trained across the U.S., learning from former Olympians and Olympic-level ice dance coaches.

As a coach, Mary has worked with regional, sectional and national competitors in ice dance, stroking and presentation. She has trained skaters in all levels of pattern dance and solo free dance, working with both testers and competitors. Off ice, Mary has studied many styles of dance and has been a competitive ballroom dancer for more than 30 years. She also wrote and edited skating magazines and is the co-author of Artistry on Ice with Nancy Kerrigan. She's excited to join Swan's coaching team
