Family was informed a formal request needed to be submitted to the board for review

Zumbrota CO-OP

A discussion was had about the co-op ending after the 2025-2026 season

Tony stated he was under the impression that as long as we had current players from Zumbrota the co-op would be renewed. Mandy will be doing some research and presenting to the board at the January meeting with hopes of inviting Paul Hartman to the February board meeting to review with him.

Fundraising

Bring back the pancake feed on Red Wing hockey day. The committee is asking for a raffle prize of free registration for the 2026/2027 season for one skater. Free registration is to be applied to the lowest level skater in the family and can be transferred between family members. The committee is also requesting a $500 budget for supplies. Motion to approve both requests by Matt, second by Nate. Motion carries.

Tournaments

The tournaments came in $1500 under the proposed budget.

The committee is requesting approval to offer the last two open mite jamboree spots at a 50% discount. Motion to approve request by Matt, second by Mandy Motion carries

Motion to give Marie Peters 100% of her families required DIBS hours for her work on the tournament committee. Motion by Desiree, second by Nate. Motion carries
