Teaching respect, commitment, determination, and perseverance

Established in 1972, Aspen Junior Hockey (AJH) has been an integral part of family life for generations. Growing up in Aspen wouldn't be the same without AJH —it's a non-profit cultural touchstone steeped in community pride.

MISSION

Through hockey, we develop strong character, perseverance, and passion for the game. Not only do we evolve as athletes, but we also work to build our youth to become contributing members of the community.

VISION

To be a world-class hockey club serving to enhance our community and families with opportunities to play and grow from the game of hockey.

About AJH

AJH, founded by John McBride in 1972, Aspen Junior Hockey (AJH) is an affiliate of the Colorado Amateur Hockey Association (CAHA) branch of the Rocky Mountain District and USA Hockey. Known as the Aspen Leafs, AJH is a highly structured 501 (c)3 non-profit organization that serves nearly 300 youth hockey players in the Roaring Fork Valley. AJH provides developmental, competitive, and recreational opportunities for girls and boys starting at age four and continuing through high school. The Aspen Leafs compete in the Western Colorado Hockey League (WCHL) and Colorado Girls Hockey League (CGHL). AJH helped establish the Mountain Select program, moving our TIER-II girls' Hockey. Now with all WCHL associations, the Girls and Boys have Tier II opportunities (MSH TIER II) throughout the mountains.

THE DAILY AWARDS EXPLAINED

Sponsored by the John Daily Family, the Daily Family Sportsmanship Awards came into being 20 years ago, in March of 1995, shortly after Art Daily's wife, Kathy, and sons Tanner and Shea were killed in an accident in Glenwood Canyon returning from a Mites game in Vail. They all loved hockey, and Art wanted to give something to our hockey program that we could remember them by. Tim Cottrell and Art came up with the idea of a Sportsmanship Award, and the Daily Awards are just that; they are Sportsmanship Awards.
