

Southridge High School in Beaverton, Oregon is looking for some ASSISTANT COACHES for their Girls Lacrosse program. We are currently looking for an offensive, defensive and goalie coach for the 2026 season. These positions have the opportunity for advancement into the head coaching role in the near future.

The ideal candidate will have these requirements:

- Previous experience coaching lacrosse, preferably at the high school, college, youth or club level.
- Previous playing experience – either High School or College Level.

Beyond those requirements, the assistant coaches will be expected to:

- Help with Practice Plans
- Work cohesively with the Current Head Coach
- Create a positive team-oriented culture within a team
- Communicate well with other coaches, players and parents
- Develop players with a positive environment, empowerment and teamwork focus
- Help grow the game at the youth level
- Motivate players to continue to grow in the sport of lacrosse

As the new assistant coach, you will be well supported with from the Southridge Lacrosse Board and Current Head Coach. Southridge has a new turf field painted for girls' lacrosse, and a team of volunteers who assist the team with:

- scorekeeping
- home game announcers
- video recording games
- managing equipment
- managing field time
- fundraising
