- I'd suggest doing it again next year as it was minimal effort from FYLA.
- I think the timing worked well because families are well-acquainted with each other by July so it was a nice social event. The patio at this time of year is ideal, but it was a rainy day. Also, having it several weeks after the Beer Bash was good, so there's not a perception of asking for money all the time.
- Next year: Might consider getting some orange and black balloons or making table tents to thank people that attended and bring awareness of our program. Maybe put $3-40 into decor and printing? There are also opportunities for social media — perhaps a prize drawing for attendees, 2 winners drawn who get a Farmington Lacrosse t-shirt or hat, take pics and post winners to social.
