Senior Spotlights

Zane Parks

Zane is a senior at Helias Catholic High School. He's been playing hockey since he was 4-years-old. He got involved through Learn-to-Play. He also played street hockey with the Twisters for many years. Zane's favorite on-ice memory is getting into a fight his freshman year during a varsity play-off game. Off-ice, he loved air soft wars and camping with his teammates. Hockey has taught Zane loyalty, comradery, selflessness, and confidence. He will miss the hockey weekends hanging at the hotels the most because they were so much fun and helped the team get closer. After graduation, Zane plans to attend Mizzou and pursue a degree in journalism to become a sports broadcaster.

Jack Nelson

Jack is a senior at School of the Osage. He's been playing hockey for 12 years. He got involved with the sport because his dad played up until college. Jack has made great memories both on and off the ice but will miss hanging out with his teammates the most. His favorite memory is making it to the finals in the JV championship last year. Hockey has taught Jack teamwork. After graduation, Jack plans to pursue a business degree at Lindenwood University next year.
