And now the end is near
And so you face the final curtain
My friend, You'll say it clear
You'll state your case of which your certain
You've lived a life that's full
You've traveled each and every highway
And more, much more than this
You did it your way

Regrets you've had a few
But then again, too few to mention
You did what you had to do
And saw it through without exemption

You planned each chartered course
Each careful step along the by-way
And more, much more than this
You did it your way

Yes, there were times, I'm sure you knew
When you bit off more than you could chew
But through it all when there was doubt
You ate it up and spit it out
You faced it all and you stood tall
And did it your way

You've loved, you've laughed, and cried
You've had your fill, your share of losing
And now, as tears subside
You'll find it all so amusing.

To think, you did all that
And may I say, not in a shy way
Oh no, oh no, not you
You did it your way.

For what is a man, what has he got?
If not himself, then he has naught
To say the things he truly feels
And not the words of one who kneels
The record shows you took the blows
And did it your way.

Yes, it was your way.
Love, Dad, Mom, Kage & Kash

Cobourn Field

John Cobourn was born Feb. 19, 1903 and began his teaching career at Martinsburg High School in 1930. He is a teacher who upheld the high standards of his profession and inspired many over the years. During his earlier years, there were only four competitive sports in high school: football, baseball, basketball and track. John Cobourn coached all four with the help of assistant coaches. His students and athletes respected him and the community residents who knew him remember Cobourn as a true friend. In the 1930's, Cobourn was instrumental in developing the football field at Martinsburg High School. He was as devoted to creating the field as he was to his job of guiding young people. In 1946 the Martinsburg High School Football field was officially named Cobourn Field.

Coach Cobourn achieved 227 Basketball Victories and guided the Bulldogs to more than 112 Football wins including Martinsburg High School's first undefeated season in 1954. This Bulldog success was not repeated again until 1976 with Coach Bob Kamensky and again in 2002, 2003, 2010 and 2011 with current MHS Football Coach Dave Walker. Coach John Cobourn once stated that his 54' Team was "The greatest group of boys I have ever coached." John Cobourn was known to prepare his athletes to play football, basketball, baseball or track, but he also prepared his athletes to play the game of life. Coach Cobourn retired in 1969 from Martinsburg High School. For his many years of service on the football field, he is still remembered today as each player and coach takes the field and each Bulldog fan enters the gates onto Cobourn Field.

John Cobourn died of a heart attack at the age of 78 on Sept. 25, 1981 while listening to a broadcast of a football game between Martinsburg High School and Fort Hill High School. His memory lives on at Cobourn Field, where hundreds of community residents use the facilities that began as just a dream of one of the high school's most revered figures.

"Victories of course count greatly, but they fade with the years while sportsmanship, fair play and good friendly relations live on."

John Cobourn
